Team HEO Coaches Announced for 2018 OHL Gold Cup

ABOUT THE EVENT

The OHL Gold Cup is an annual event created to feature Ontario's top Under-16 talent. This event will not only showcase Ontario's talent, but is an evaluation and selection process for Hockey Canada who takes part in the World under 17 Challenge. With 8 teams and 160 players representing HEO, Alliance, GTHL, HNO, NOHA, and the OMHA, the future of Canadian hockey will be on display during the 4 days of the OHL Gold Cup. This year's event will take place May 2th to 6th, 2018 in Kitchener Ontario.

TEAM HEO

Jeff Baker (HEO Manager of Hockey Operations) and Jeff Robert (Team HEO General Manager) are pleased to announce the Selection of Darcy Findlay as Head Coach. Darcy brings a wealth of experience to this Team. Darcy is currently the Head Coach of the Nepean Raiders of the CCHL1 and was an Assistant Coach on Team HEO at last year's OHL Gold Cup Bronze Medal winning team. Darcy will be joined by Alain Raymond as Assistant Coach. Al is currently a Head Coach with the CIH Academy in the HEO Midget AAA League. Also joining the staff this year will be Jordan Johnson. Jordan is currently the Head Coach of the Eastern Ontario Wild Major Bantam AAA team. Alex Matheson will also be on the staff, Alex will be responsible for advanced scouting, and Video. Alex is currently an Assistant Coach with the Nepean Raiders Midget AAA team and is the Video Coach with the Nepean Raiders Junior A Team.

Team HEO would also like to announce that Michel Perron (Head Trainer Navan Grads Junior A of the CCHL1) has been brought on board as the Head Equipment Manager and Team Trainer.
