

Hello from The Ottawa Symphony Orchestra!

We are excited to announce our upcoming holiday concert called The Hockey Sweater which will be held Sunday afternoon at 3:30pm on December 18th at the Carleton Dominion Chalmers Centre located at 355 Cooper St in Centretown.

We are excited to share this amazing holiday musical experience with as many people from the Hockey Eastern Ontario community as possible because it's an opportunity to recognize our local paralympic champions. As you can hear from this spotify playlist, the concert includes a musical version of Roch Carrier's classic The Hockey Sweater - and our narrator will be Todd Nicholson - former captain of our national paralympic team!

Knowing all the financial pressures on parents and everyone this year and this time of year, we wanted to share a special discount code that offers tickets to anyone for $19. Just enter DOWNBEATORCH at checkout. You can see all the ticket options here.

We look forward to seeing you all at the concert to spend some special holiday time together.
